4. Among its many services, the Department offers driver licenses and identification cards in two general forms, standard and enhanced.

Enhanced Driver Licenses and Identification Cards

- 5. The Department developed its Enhanced Driver License (EDL) and Enhanced Identification Card (EID) programs with U.S. Customs and Border Protection in accordance with the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative.
- 6. Per the terms of the travel initiative, only U.S. citizens are eligible to obtain EDLs and EIDs.
- 7. EDLs and EIDs are denoted with an American flag on the right side of the cardholder's photograph and "Enhanced Driver License" along the top right of the card. Standard driver licenses and identification cards read "Federal Limits Apply" along the top right of the card and do not carry an American flag.
- 8. Applicants for an EDL or EID must provide proof of U.S. citizenship, proof of identity, proof of Washington residence, and a Social Security Number.
- 9. Applicants for an EDL or EID must pay an additional $7 per year of the renewal timeframe. Applicants can choose between a six- or eight-year renewal cycle, thereby increasing the cost of an EDL or EID by $42 to $56 over the standard document.
- 10. Applicants for an EDL or EID must also ensure that their current name matches U.S. citizenship or identity documents. Those unable to do so, including, e.g., married individuals, divorced individuals, and individuals who have adopted the name of a close relative, must provide additional evidence substantiating their name change.
- 11. Substantiating a name change can be a cumbersome process, requiring the applicant to search through records from courts and birth certificate-issuing departments. In some cases, records are several decades old, only available in physical media, and located in distant jurisdictions, thereby affecting the searchability, accessibility, and quality of the documentation. Additional compounding factors include name changes made outside of the judicial process and multiple name changes throughout the applicant's lifetime.

Compliance with the REAL ID Act of 2005

- 12. The Department maintains compliance with the federal REAL ID Act of 2005 solely through its EDL and EID programs.
- 13. In 2017, the Department applied to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) seeking authorization to use EDLs and EIDs as Washington's REAL ID-compliant documents.
- 14. DHS fully certified the Department-issued REAL ID-compliant documents on September 28, 2018, and provided recertification on December 16, 2024. In both cases, certification followed a lengthy assessment of the Department's adherence to the requirements outlined in 6 C.F.R. Part 37.
- 15. Specific requirements include, but are not limited to, verifying lawful status through the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services online platform, SAVE, and verifying Social Security Numbers with the Social Security Administration.

Washington Voter Registration

- 16. The Department refers certain individuals to Washington's Secretary of State for voter registration based on the following statutory criteria:
 - (a) Any individual issued a new or renewed EDL or EID;¹ or
 - (b) Any individual who answers in the affirmative to the questions "do you want to register or sign up to vote or update your voter registration?" and "are you a United States citizen?".²
- For any applicant providing identity documents that demonstrate they are not a U.S. citizen, the Department will not ask the second set of questions, and the Department will not refer the individual to the Washington Secretary of State for voter registration.
